Additional Live Concert Videos Recorded at Sound Academy (Toronto 2012)
To Be Released May 18

(May 15, 2020) - ALEXISONFIRE is set to officially release a fan-fuelled video for “Season of the Flood” tonight at 9:00pm ET via YouTube HERE. The video is notably comprised of footage shot exclusively by AOF concert-goers in Winnipeg, Edmonton, Calgary and Vancouver. During the band’s January 2020 Western Canadian tour, fans were encouraged to shoot footage of the live performance of “Season of the Flood” from their mobile devices and submit it to the band. Earlier this week, Alexisonfire sent the finished video to everyone who submitted footage, ensuring their fans were the first to give their collective work a proper global debut ahead of tonight’s public premiere.

The premiere will be followed by a very special, one-time 'watch party' of Alexisonfire: Live At Copps, originally filmed on December 30, 2012 at Copps Coliseum in Hamilton, ON, on the Alexisonfire Youtube channel. The entire band will join fans worldwide in conversation throughout the concert which features 24 songs first featured on the Alexisonfire: Live at Copps 4 LP release. Streaming begins HERE at 9:15pm ET. Fans are encouraged to sign up for mobile or email reminders for the live stream. In addition, four more live videos will be released on May 18 featuring footage from December 29, 2012, the last of four incredible sold-out shows that Alexisonfire performed at Sound Academy in Toronto. See below for setlists and pre-save links for May 18.

A handful of blu-ray copies of the Live At Copps concert will be made available on the Dine Alone Store. Fans can also purchase Alexisonfire: Live at Copps 4 LP set at a reduced price starting today and running until Monday May 18 at: theonlybandever.com and the Dine Alone Store.

"Season of the Flood" is a seductive, hypnotic, 7-minute slow-burner anchored by haunting 3-part harmonies and heavy reverb-filled guitars produced by AOF long-time friend, the late Karl "Horse" Bareham (City and Colour), and mixed by Grammy-award winning Jacquire King (Tom Waits, Kings of Leon, Modest Mouse). The track comes on the heels of "Familiar Drugs" and "Complicit" released last year, marking the first time the band released new music in almost 10 years. "Season of the Flood" is available to stream and purchase via DSPs HERE. An official video for single "Familiar Drugs" directed by Michael Maxxis (who directed AOF's personal favourite video for "The Northern" and City and Colour's "Fragile Bird", "Thirst", and "Lover Come Back") is available to watch HERE.

ABOUT ALEXISONFIRE

Alexisonfire rose up out of the Southern Ontario underground in late 2001 to become one of the most successful indie bands to come out of Canada. AOF released four hugely successful studio albums, all Music Canada Platinum-certified: Alexisonfire (2002), Watch Out (2004), Crisis (2006), and Old Crows / Young Cardinals (2009). Crisis debuted at #1 on the Top 200 Soundscan (Canada), and Old Crows / Young Cardinals debuted at #2, and charted at #9 on the US Billboard Independent Album chart. Watch Out helped garner a New Group of the Year JUNO (2004). The band has topped charts and graced notable music magazine covers internationally. AOF's sold-out 10 Year Anniversary tour (2012) touched down on four continents in 24 days, illustrating how meaningful the band still is to their legion of fans worldwide. Alexisonfire also has the distinction of being one of a handful of Canadian artists to perform two consecutive sold-out nights at iconic Toronto venue Budweiser Stage alongside City and Colour, Drake, The Tragically Hip, and Sarah McLachlan.
